

He was the first colt to be kept by Welton Gameful. His dam was an Irish Grey

Louis always showed great character, charisma and inherited from his mother a huge, blazing eye.

He was started in his eventing career by Sam (also the very first horse that Sam evented, at the ripe age of 10)

In 1978, at their first attempt, they won the medium dressage championships and in 1980 won the Open Spillers Combined Training at Wembley.

When Louis retired from ng him as her top schoolmaster and

Louis sired many successful event horses, the most illustrious being Welton Romance - Open European Champion 1995.